AFTER HOWISON.

Schley's Attorneys Claim He Has Expressed Opinions.

...Washington, Aug. 19—Judge Wilson and Lemuel Parker, counsel for Admiral Schley in the coming court of inquiry, called on Acting Secretary of the Navy Hackett today. Both the counselors for the defense and Wilson would be sent him relative to certain statement reported to have been made by Admiral Howison, a member of the court of inquiry, in regard to Schley's controversy. The letter to Hackett will inclose a copy of a letter purporting to have come from Howison, stating among other things that the battle of Santiago was won by Sampson and that the Flying Squadron was unnecessary at that fight. But Schley's claim to the victory on that line will not be disputed. Sampson will be the principal witness for the defense and Howison will be one of the witnesses called by Judge Advocate General Lemly. It is expected that the court of inquiry will be convened by August 26. Admiral Schley will be present at the opening session.

AMERICANS COMPLAIN

To London Hotel Keeper for Accepting Colored Guests.

...London, Aug. 19—The American delegates to the Ecumenical council, which meets in Wesley chapel next month, are already arriving. Their advent is causing unexpected difficulty, at one of the big hotels in the west end, where a large number of Americans are living. The latter were amazed by the announcement that one 200 colored men were coming and formally protested to the proprietor, assuming him that such a thing would not be permitted in the United States and demanding that the colored people be accommodated in a private house. The proprietor declined to interfere, with the result that some of the Americans already announce that they will leave. Among the colored delegates are Bishop Derrick of New York, Bishop Turner of Philadelphia, Bishop Gaines of Atlanta and Bishop Arnett.

TEST CASE.

Against Iowa Man For Shipping Out Quail.

...De Moines, Aug. 19—The sportsmen are awaiting a case in which there will be a test of the new game law enacted at the last session of congress. William Wagoner, living near Vandalia, was arrested on information filed by a state fish and game warden, charging him with violation of the state game laws by shipping quail out of the state. It is alleged Wagoner shipped quail to a Chicago commission house. It is the intention to file an information before the United States commissioner, charging Wagoner with violating the interstate commerce law, which makes it an offense to ship game killed in violation of law from one state to another.

Conger is Back.

...Washington, Aug. 19.—It is not known here whether Minister Conger, who arrived at Pekin on Saturday, will take up the Chinese negotiations at the point to which they have been brought by Rockhill, thus leaving the latter free to come home, or will leave the negotiations in Rockhill's hands until the final signing of the protocol. However, the state department will not send any specific instructions on this point, but will leave it to Conger and Rockhill to arrange plans to suit their mutual convenience.

SERIES OF GAINS

STRIKERS DON'T BELIEVE IT

Insist That Big Corporation is Merely Making a Bluff.

...Pittsburg, Aug. 19—The United States steel corporation has made a series of gains today in the restoration of properties crippled by the strikes. The steel mills at Monessen, after a long period of inactivity, were partly put in motion by the strike breakers brought from the southern states. Two more mills in the Painters plant were also started and one other large mill at the Clark property started for the first time. There was some disorder in the streets of Monessen during the day, but the police never lost control of the demonstrative crowds and there was no serious trouble. The reopening of the Monessen mill is believed to be the first of a series of aggressive moves on the part of the steel corporation. Preparations are known to be in progress for the reopening of the Star tin mills in this city and for the increasing of the force at the Lindsay and McCutcheon mills and it is thought to be only a matter of a little time before the strongholds of the strikers, like New Castle, McKeesport, Wheeling, Bellaire and Mingo Junction will be invaded.

STRIKERS DENY IT.

The strikers deny any real progress has been made at either Monessen or Painters and say they are not to be frightened by burning a lot of coal and the mere operation of the machinery. They say skilled men can not be secured outside of their ranks and that none of their men are deserting, despite the claims to the contrary. The managers of the Painters mills claim that a full of their two new crews is made up of old employes who came back to work. At the Clark mill it is asserted that more skilled men are offering their services than can be accommodated. Fifty were taken on there today, bringing the total force up to 600. The greatest fight in this district is for the mastery at the Duquesne mills of the Carnegie company. Both sides are working secretly—the Amalgamated association to extend its organization and strength among the workers, and the steel company to block any plan to get the men out. Neither side has yet shown its hand and the claims made are conflicting. The Amalgamated association organizers assert they have secured a strong position in the property and that when the word is given it will be shut down. The managers of the mill express absolute confidence in their ability to keep the plant in operation. Assistant Secretary Tighe returned from the west today and had a conference with President Shaffer. Discussing Tighe's report, Shaffer said:

"The Chicago mill men who remained at work are now no longer members of the organization. They are not entitled to a third and will have none. They are at liberty to act as they see fit, as they do now, but if they go out they will do so on their own responsibility."

The Pittsburg men of the Pennsylvania works of the National Tube company joined the strikers tonight and it is expected the force in the Franks-town plant will follow them tomorrow. About six hundred left the Pennsylvania works and it is almost certain that all the remaining six hundred will join in the movement and completely tie up the property. There are six hundred in the Franks-town property and the total number of men added to the army of strikers by the movement will be about eighteen hundred.

TWELVE MEN QUIT

Leave Chicago Mill and Join the General Strike.

...Chicago, Aug. 19.—A decided sensation was created tonight among the steel workers in the Illinois Steel mills at South Chicago when twelve Amalgamated men quit work and decided to join the general strike of the steel workers. These men had heretofore steadfastly refused to obey President Shaffer's order to strike. As soon as Vice President Davis was informed of the step the men had taken he wired Shaffer that if he would come to Chicago and call a joint meeting of the two local lodges the remainder of the five hundred Amalgamated men employed at the South Chicago mills could be induced to strike.

Take Away the Mills

...Canal Dover, Ohio, Aug. 19.—Superintendent Harris state...he has received positive orders for the removal of the tin mill from this city unless the men return to work immediately.

O'Brien Wins

...London, Aug. 19.—"Jack" O'Brien of Philadelphia knocked out "Dido" Plumb of London in the sixth round of a fifteen round contest at New Castle tonight, winning the 154-pound championship and six hundred and fifty pounds sterling.

GERMAN BUSY BODIES

Mistrust Purpose of United States in the South.

...Berlin, Aug. 19. The Vossische Zeitung today, discussing the attitude of the New York newspapers regarding European vessels going to the Caribbean sea, points out that a large United States naval force has been kept there and runs the question whether the "American imperialists" view the present situation as offering a welcome occasion for extending the sphere and power of the United States or whether it is an honest attempt to restore peace. The paper continues: "If Americans are intent on nothing more than to protect the reasonable interests of citizens of the United States then they should rejoice at the presence of European vessels having the same object in view. Even the cooperation of the various powers would be possible. But the very fact that the United States minister at Caracas undertook the business of the Colombian minister was calculated to arouse the distrust of the intentions of the Washington government, which thereby got control of events along most important points." Referring to the report circulated in Washington that trouble is likely to spread to Nicaragua and Ecuador, the Vossische Zeitung says: "It does not look as if the United States was trying to quench the flames, but on the contrary as if that country was trying to spread them as much as possible, in order, in any case, to have a pretext for military intervention."

TWO IN TUNNEL

Men Imprisoned at Cleveland Crib Rescued After Five Days.

ARE COMPLETELY WORN OUT

...Cleveland, Aug. 19—Two men, Adam Kent and John Eugene, who were supposed to have perished in the water works tunnel on last Wednesday as a result of the destruction of the crib by fire, were rescued this evening. The men were working at the crib when they were startled to hear some one rapping on a pipe through which air is forced into the tunnel. The knocks were answered by the workmen and responsive knocks were heard. Preparations were at once made to send a rescuing party with the result the two men named were rescued after being confined in the tunnel five and a half days. They were taken to the hospital where they are now lying semi-conscious but with careful nursing, the physicians, they will recover. Shut off from the upper world the men knew nothing of the catastrophe that killed so many of their comrades and imprisoned them.

THEODORE N. GREEN

Elected Circuit Judge in Peoria District Over F. L. Velde.

...Peoria, Aug. 19.—Theodore N. Green, son of the late Judge N. W. Green of Pekin, was elected to the circuit judgeship to fill out the unexpired term of the late Thomas M. Shaw of Lacon, over Franklin L. Velde of Pekin, the republican candidate, by a majority of over eight hundred.

Trust Gets It

...New York, Aug. 19. The Herald will say tomorrow: "It was definitely learned yesterday that the control of the Bethlehem Steel company is no longer in the hands of Charles H. Schwab, president of the United States Steel corporation. Schwab, it was authoritatively stated, has allowed his interest in the company to pass into the hands of the syndicate identified with the United States Steel corporation, the manager of which is the banking house of J. P. Morgan & Co. The property has not been turned over to the United States Steel corporation, nor is there any intention of doing so at present.

Advices Muddle Course

...Berlin, Aug. 19.—Germania, the organ of the centrists and radical party, whose attitude will determine the fate of the new tariff bill, frankly advises the government to take a middle course and to see that the bill is firmly supported by its representative in the reichstag. It declares this is the only way to secure the passage of the measure, since the latter is opposed by both the extreme left and the agrarian right, although for different reasons. The article is taken to indicate that the centrists already are bargaining with the government.

Silk Seized

...New York, Aug. 19.—A new invoice of 18 cases of silk imported from Japan was reported to Collector Bidwell by Appraiser Ackman for seizure today. With the seizure today the government will have to take charge of forty cases of silk, weighing more than 100,000 pounds and valued at over $64,000. The duty on silks which already have been seized will amount to over $30,000, while under the methods carried on in the division before the frauds were discovered, importers would probably have paid only $9,000 on the lot.

STRUCK BY SQUALL

Row Boat Capsized and Sinks in Ten Feet of Water

SIXTEEN PERSONS ARE LOST

Accident Happened at Time When Passengers Were in the Cabin

...Paducah, Ky., Aug. 19. The steamer City of Golconda, plying between this city and Elizabethtown, Ill., was struck by a squall tonight as she was enroute to Paducah and turned over in ten feet of water, six miles above the city. Sixteen persons are reported drowned. The disaster occurred as supper was being served and many of the seventy five passengers were in the cabin. The wind struck the boat without warning and there was no time for those on the inside to escape. Captain Bauer and Pilot Pack were the last to leave the boat and swam to shore. They saved several persons in a house near the bank and came to this city. Captain Bauer said:

"The boat was getting ready to land at Crowell's landing, when a squall struck her and she listed. Several passengers who were inside jumped overboard and were caught by the boat. The ladies, all of whom were in the cabin, could not be reached. The boat settled down in ten feet of water over a reef and two men who were in the cabin, H. F. Worten and N. S. Quartermouse, broke through a glass and were saved. Three colored deck hands saved a woman and child and I think she was the only woman that was saved. The boat was valued at $2500 and was owned by Captain Bauers of Golconda, Ill. There is no way to determine the loss or drowned until the boat's book is found. The captain places the number at sixteen.

The partial list of the lost follows:

MISS LIZZIE GRAHAM, Grahamville, Ky.

MISS TRIXIE GRIMES, niece Miss Graham.

COL. TURNER, Smithland, Ky.

CHAYLON GORDON, Smithland, Ky.

WILLIAM WEBB, Smithland, Ky.

WATTS DAVIS, Livingston county, Ky.

MRS. DAVE ADAMS, Smithland, Ky.

MRS W. E. HOGAN, two sons and daughter, Paducah.

WILL WOODS, Golconda, Ill., deck hand.

DEE JACKSON, Paducah, Ky., deck hand.

The steamer Mary H., which was sent to the scene of the wreck, returned to night with the survivors. They report ten women drowned and the total number of those who perished may reach twenty.

AFTER INFORMRTION

American Anti-Trust League Appeal to Attorney General Knox.

...Columbus, O., Aug. 19.—The American Anti-Trust league sent a letter to Attorney General Knox asking for all information he is possessed of or can obtain concerning the agreement or agreements made between the constituent companies and individuals who organized the United States Steel company, commonly known as the steel trust. The letter continues:

"The trust or syndicate agreement which we especially desire is the one which President Schwab refused to furnish to the United States Industrial commission when on the witness stand before that body. Our request is founded upon the information and belief that at the time this contract or contracts was or were made you were in some way officially connected with the Carnegie Steel company, which institution is one of the principal companies in the United States Steel corporation. As this information is doubtless in your possession or conveniently at hand, you will greatly oblige this committee by giving us the substance thereof in your own language or if possible a copy thereof. This request is to cover any other contracts of a similar kind with which you are acquainted or which you can obtain for us. Our object is to prevent a failure of justice in certain legal proceedings which we contemplate in the near future."

Michaels Makes Records

...New York, Aug. 19. The indoor cycle racing at Madison Square Garden attracted five thousand spectators tonight. The principal event was the fifteen-mile motor-paced match between Jimmy Michael and Floyd McFarland. Michael won easily, finishing eight laps ahead of McFarland. From the first to the eighth mile Michael set such a terrific pace that he broke all previous indoor records. Michael's time for the first mile was 1:10 3-5, and for the eight, 13:38 2-5. Time for the entire distance of fifteen miles was 20:21 2-5.

FIRES OF THE DAY.

Big Round House at Herkimer is Destroyed.

...Herkimer, N. Y., Aug. 19.—The Mohawk and Malone round house was discovered on fire late tonight. Watchman Gilbert and an engine under named John Dack, assisted by the residents of the vicinity and members of the bridge building gang attempted to extinguish the flames. While they were battling with the fire a large quantity of dynamite stored in the building exploded, killing Gilbert and Dack and fatally injuring four others. The bodies of the four last mentioned are unrecognizable. The round house was wrecked and burned. It is feared that there are other bodies in the ruins.

OIL BURNS.

...Philadelphia, Aug. 19—During an electrical storm today lightning struck a tank containing 28,000 barrels of benzine at the Atlantic Oil Refining company's works at Point Breeze. Four oil tanks containing 62,000 barrels of oil were also destroyed. Loss, $450,000. The fire is still burning.

...While a large force of firemen late tonight was endeavoring to check the fire, an immense tank of benzine exploded. Many firemen were in close proximity to the tank and had a narrow escape from the blazing oil. Three or four were killed and as many badly burned before they could be rescued. The names of the dead can not be learned at present. They were horribly burned. Some of the injured will die. Ten or twelve tanks of benzine and petroleum have already been destroyed and the fire is not yet checked. The loss will now reach probably a half million dollars.

RECEIVER NAMED

Two Big Lumber Compaies at Baltimore.

...Baltimore, Aug. 19. Receivers were appointed today for the Parkton Lumber company of Baltimore county and the Chesapeake Lumber company of this city on the application of Charles E. Corkran, who asserts he is the principal stockholder in both concerns. The petition in both cases alleges the companies are insolvent because of mismanagement of the officers of the corporations interested. The proceedings taken today were the sequel to the suit entered Saturday last, in which a receiver was appointed for the Manor Lumber company on the petition of Benjamin Cross of Cincinnati, who alleges that Manor and other similar companies were organized and used by Corkran in furthering a plan to defraud certain banks by means of worthless commercial paper. Corkran denies these charges.

Account of One Man

...Akron, Ohio, Aug. 19. Because a nonunion boiler maker refused to join the union and the company declined to discharge him, over 300 employes of the Sterling Boiler company at Barberton, quit work today and the plant, which gives employment to nearly 600, is idle.

Neptune is Lost.

...Pensacola, Aug. 19.—It is feared the Russian bark, Neptune, which sailed from here Aug. 10 for Montevideo, was lost in a recent storm. The foundation for this is the fact that pieces of the stern of the vessel with the name "Neptune" were picked up today on the outer beach of Santa Rosa island.

Morgan Gets More Steamers.

...London, Aug. 19. It is reported in Glasgow that J. R. Ellerman of the Leyland line has purchased the old established city line of fourteen steamers engaged in the East Indian trade, the price being nearly a million pounds. Ellerman, according to the rumor, is acting for J. Pierpont Morgan.

Counterfeiter Shot

...Peoria, Aug. 19. Joseph W. Walker of Milwaukee was arrested by Officer Davidson on the charge of passing counterfeit dollars. Walker broke from the officer and ran, when the latter fired several shots at him, one of which inflicted a probably fatal wound.

...Junction City, Kas., Aug. 19.—While at target practice today on the Fort Riley reservation, a seven-inch shell exploded as it was being placed in one of the siege guns of battery O, Seventh artillery, commanded by Captain Van Duren. One man was killed and eight injured. The killed:

HENRY C. WATSON.

JOHN KING.

The injured:

Murry Sykes, fatal.

Charles Duncan, fatal.

Henry Legsdon, seriously.

Dennis Mahoney, not dangerous.

Hornet Hood, seriously.

Ross Duck, slight.

James Brady, slight.

Private Watson was in the act of ramming the shell home when there was a terrific explosion and the breechless body of Watson was seen standing perfectly erect for almost 15 seconds, when it moved as if to step and then fell, alighting on his back with shoulders toward the gun. Private John King had both arms torn off and lost both eyes and died late tonight.

TO HAMPTON ROADS.

Atlantic Squadron Ordered There For Practice.

...Nantucket, Mass., Aug. 19.—The North Atlantic squadron received orders to sail tomorrow for Hampton Roads. All preparations for a continuance of maneuvres at this place are countermanded and the vessels are already getting up steam preparatory to departure. While the exact reason for the change in plans is not known, it is believed the South American trouble has something to do with it.

...Washington, Aug. 19. It was stated at the navy department today that the squadron would have been ordered to Hampton Roads even if there had been no disturbances in South America. It is said a large part of the manoeuvres can be conducted much better at Hampton Roads than at any other place. The effect of the movement, however, will be to place the squadron about a day and a half's sail nearer to the scene of the southern difficulty than they would be if they remained on the New England coast.

Drank Carbolic Acid After Reading a Litchfield Man's Letter.

Mt. Olive, Aug. 16. Miss Anna Kohn committed suicide at the Mercantile hotel here last night by drinking a quantity of carbolic acid. The young woman was in love with a young man of Litchfield. Shortly before she committed the deed she received a letter from him, but the contents of it are unknown, as she immediately destroyed the missive. It is believed that the contents of the letter furnish the direct cause for the fatal deed. Miss Kohn was a sister of Philip Kohn, the catcher for the Mt. Olive ball team. She was a popular young woman and leaves a large circle of friends to mourn her death.

REICH FAMILY TROUBLES.

Get Into the Papers as aResult of Disturbance at Home Thursday Night.

Charles Reich called at the office of State's Attorney Redmon yesterday to [illegible] some arrangement could be made for placing his children in a home. He accused his wife of being addicted to the use of liquor and unfit to care for the little ones. Mrs. Reich called at the [illegible] office last night and stated that she was willing that the children should be taken from her when it was proved that she was unfit and incapable of caring for them but not before. It appears that Thursday night the family, living at 1213 East Marietta street, had a row and Reich's application to the state's attorney was the outgrowth of this.

In the evening paper Mrs. Reich is accused of having thrown the silverware at her husband, but this she emphatically denies and says that she was thrown over the banister of the porch by her husband and struck in the face. She [illegible] her face with her to prove the statement and there were unquestionably bruises there. In regard to her husband's charge of using liquor Mrs. Reich enters a disclaimer and says that he is more largely to blame than she, because for the past eight years she has had to help in his saloon business, and that she never had anything to do with a business of that kind before.

HEADED THIS WAY

Dewitt Syford Starts on "Joss" Back From Lincoln, Neb., to Decatur.

W. H. Starr and other friends are speculating right now on the unusual trip being taken by Dewitt Syford, a former well known resident of Decatur. He is headed this way on "Joss" back, riding his favorite charger, Decoration. Mr. Syford apprised Mr. Starr by letter over a week ago of his intended trip, saying that he would leave Lincoln, Neb., on the 11th and would arrive on West Main street Sunday afternoon, Aug. 18, pulling up at Mr. Starr's front [illegible] Since then [illegible] the only message received from him was a wireless special which came to [illegible] announcing his arrival at [illegible] Wednesday evening. [illegible] he will have them on the lookout [illegible] [illegible] Mr. Syford stated that he would [illegible] the trip in order to [illegible] view the corn crop between Lincoln, Neb., and this city. [illegible] his arrival special [illegible] on West Main street Sunday [illegible] reception upon his arrival. Many of the older citizens of Decatur remember Mr. Syford. He was formerly connected with the Wabash telegraph department and had charge of the [illegible] from the city to St. Louis.

ONE FIFTH CROP.

Is A. H. Hill's Estimate After Careful Investigation of Corn.

Editors Herald: I have seen several pieces in the Decatur papers recently in regard to the corn crop in Macon county. Various and conflicting opinions in regard to the condition of the corn crop are not to be wondered at. There are some localities where there have been a few showers of rain and they have helped the corn in that neighborhood, but as near as I can find out the largest part of Macon county has had no rain, and very little since corn was cultivated [illegible] Where such conditions exist I should say there will not be an average of ten bushels to the acre of good corn. I have taken particular pains to find out the true situation as to the condition of the corn crop, as I have been crop reporter for this county for the last ten years. I have examined fields of corn that will not produce one bushel of good corn. While there are some fields where they have had local rains will perhaps make 25 or 30 bushels per acre. My prediction is that Macon county will not make more than one fifth of an average crop, and that no more will not raise as much as [illegible] in the county.

Pastures are all dried up and farmers are feeding stock now and that means eight months to feed stock to get them. There is five per cent of last year's crop [illegible] in farmers' hands now.

SPOILED A GOOD THING.

Chief of Police at Wyckles Criticizes Decatur's Chief of Police.

Jacob Troutman, chief of police at Wyckles, was in Decatur Friday and in strong terms he denounced Chief Applegate for spoiling a piece of smooth detective work. Chief Troutman says "Applegate does not understand the first principle of being chief. That's a secret [illegible] to tell him anything, he tells to the newspapers and spoils all chance of ever catching any man."

"Did you have a good clue?" was asked, and the Wyckles [illegible] "and I never will have now that this thing has got into the papers."

Several days ago Chief Troutman came to Decatur, and on entering the [illegible] office he noticed [illegible] Applegate and [illegible] the way to the [illegible] into a dark corner, he whispered that he was on a hot trail. He further explained that the night before some one had stolen from him a wagon load of roasting ears. He was confident that the thief had come to Decatur. He was further confident that he knew the man and could identify the corn. The Decatur [illegible] but dubious about the identification and Jake went out to get more positive evidence, while Ben kept in the dark until the proper moment. The next day there was printed in a Decatur paper a hint of Jake's work. This publication, Jake says, has spoiled all chance of getting the fellow who, until the publication of the fact, had been nursing the delusion that no one knew that the corn had been stolen. Of course, as soon as public notice was given that Troutman was on his trail he at once took to his ankles and got away so completely that even the bloodhounds could not follow his trail. Anyhow, Jake feels that Ben did him a mean trick. He will not tell Ben any of his secrets in the future unless Ben will cross his heart that he will not tell.

DEAF AND DUMB SHOW

Minnie Robock Claims She Merely Made Signs.

Gottlieb Miller swore out a warrant for the arrest of Minnie Robock, charging her with disturbing the peace. Minnie came into court later and promised to be on hand this afternoon and make Miller prove it. According to her story he will have a hard time doing it. She says the disturbance was all in pantomime. She made signs and faces and Mrs. Miller did the same thing, but there was no loud talk or use of boisterous or indecorous language.

John Cavanaugh appeared before Justice McCoy and swore out a warrant for the arrest of three boys charging them with robbing his corn fields. John complained that he had about half a crop in the bottoms, but that there was mighty small promise of a yield half that large if the boys were left unmolested. He claims that they go in with baskets and sacks and help themselves.

Victor [illegible] and Sam Getzler, two men who created a disturbance in front of the Railroad Y. M. C. A. on Thursday night, appeared before Justice Smith and were fined $5 and costs. They promised to make a hasty exit from the city.

An unknown man was before Justice Provost charged by M. Levy with disorderly conduct in the west part of the city. He was fined three and costs and told to get out of town, which he promised to do.

PROSPEROUS IN IOWA

Former Resident of Macon County Grows Wealthy by Increase in Land Value.

[illegible] of Oakley has returned home from a pleasure trip to Iowa. He says that the crop prospects in that state are much better than they are in Illinois. The corn crop is looking fine and will make a fair yield at least. The people in that section of the country have been blessed with frequent rains. [illegible] the crop [illegible] despite the long continued drouth. The yield of oats in that state was much [illegible] and was of good quality.

While in Iowa Mr. [illegible] visited with Henry Hursley, who was formerly a [illegible] living on one of the [illegible] farms near Oakley. Mr. Hursley is now a land owner and is prosperous. He went to Iowa about ten years ago and with his savings bought a small piece of land to which he has gradually added, until he now owns 120 acres. It cost him on an average of $20 per acre and he recently refused an offer of $55 per acre for it. He is this year building a handsome residence costing him $2500, and a big barn. His farm is well improved and the land is constantly growing in value.

EIGHT GAMBLERS

Were Arrested by the Police Friday Afternoon—Paid Fines.

Friday afternoon the police visited the rooms over the saloon of H. Merriweather, on North Water street. The officers knocked at the door but were denied admission. A moment later, however, eight inmates came out of two different doors with a rush and immediately the doors were closed behind them. The police officers were not certain whether the men who came out and pulled doors behind them or whether some remained. The doors had spring locks and the officers could not get in without force. They did believe, however, that this move was to prevent them getting into the room and confiscating the furniture.

All of the men were taken to the office of Justice O'Mara, where, on being arraigned on the charge of gambling, they entered pleas of guilty and were fined $25 and costs each. All of the fines were paid. Six of the men were professional gamblers and the other two were men who gave the names of Smith and Jones, which was looked upon as being merely a blind to hide their real names.

NO HEARING.

Chief Applegate Says Stober's Case Has Been Disposed Of

Chief Applegate says that the case of Watchman Stober has been finally disposed of and will not be reopened.

On that score the chief said, "Stober was never appointed by Mayor Shilling and had at the time of the quarrel with Leech given no bond. He was not deprived of anything because under this administration he had no police authority. The truth is that he was never qualified by appointment during the administration of Mayor Stadler nor did he [illegible] and during that term Stober imagine that there is a [illegible] against him, when in fact no one gives the matter a thought."

$103 Per Acre.

In spite of the apparent failure of Douglas county crops, land around here still continues to bring fancy prices and two sales made by Dora Baker this week will testify. One was sold by Jack Riley to William Olds and was a 60 acre piece east of the city. It brought $80 per acre. The other was a 40 acre farm with the best of improvement throughout and was sold by Bud Wilkman to Mr. Riley at $103. Tuscola Review.

Home From Tourney,

Chief Devore returned home Friday morning from Dixon, where he had been to attend the annual tournament of the Illinois Volunteer Firemen's association. The meeting was one of the best held in recent years. There was a big attendance, harsh competition and fast time in all of the events.

The Arcola department, Edwardsville department and Paris department and Charleston department all passed through here on their way home. The Arcola boys made a fine showing. They won a number of first and second prizes.

Children Killed.

The Big Four has had hard luck in killing children this week. At Bloomington a two-year-old colored boy was killed by a train. Just how or when it happened no one knows. Some section men found the remains beside the track.

At Urbana on Thursday a switch engine pushed a string of cars over the body of a 20-months-old boy who had wandered from home and out upon the tracks.

A BALOON VOYAGE

Is Declared by Elmer Folsom of Bloomington to be Delightful.

PERFECT PEACE AND QUIET

Only Unusual Sensation He Could Describe As Incident to Voyage—From Monticello to Mt. Pulaski.

Prof. Carl Myers, aeronaut of Frankfort, Herkimer county, N. Y., and Elmer Folsom, city engineer of Bloomington, came to Decatur Friday night from Mt. Pulaski, where they landed after making a balloon ascension at Monticello. They started on their voyage at 1:45 p. m. and landed four miles west of Mt. Pulaski at 6:20 p. m. They say that they had a trip thoroughly pleasant and without incident worthy of note.

Engineer Folsom said: "No one in Bloomington except my wife and my assistant knew where I was going. When I read that a captive balloon was to be in Monticello I went down there for the express purpose of taking a ride. I had always wanted to make a balloon ascension and never had the opportunity. I concluded that a ride in a captive was better than nothing. After a trip with the captive I had a talk with Prof. Myers and secured the privilege of making a trip with him when the balloon was cut away and went back to Monticello for that purpose. Sensations? There were none except of peace and quiet. It was delightful. The earth seems rather to fall away instead of the balloon rising. The barometer showed that we reached an altitude of 5,000 feet. We first reached that altitude in about twenty minutes, at the same time having traveled perhaps twelve miles. We encountered three currents of air, all of them having a general northwesterly direction. The lowest temperature after reaching that height was 75 degrees. We came down to perhaps 2000 feet twice and then sifted out a little ballast and again went up, each time a little higher than the first time. The sight from the balloon is simply perfect. There were no clouds and of course we could not get above them. It seemed strange when we descended near enough to the earth to hear the sounds of the farm yard. The [illegible] it was hazy and for that reason we could not see the great distance that would otherwise have been presented to our view. I could see the grove about Bloomington and recognized it. I am familiar with the country and recognized a number of land marks. We considered the question of going to Elkhart, but finally decided to land as near to Mt. Pulaski as possible because that would be more convenient for Prof. Myers in getting his belongings to a railroad station before dark and come to Decatur via the P., D. & E. railroad.

We landed without any discomfort. We made no attempt to get out of the balloon which struck the earth twice before we finally landed. When the balloon bumped we simply retained our seats. We had an anchor rope out and about half way up was our anchor. When the balloon bounced it went up in the air perhaps twenty five feet. I know that once we bounced over the telephone wire and the anchor caught on that. Some boys caught the anchor rope and held it until some men came and made it fast. We landed in a corn field."

When pressed for some description of the sensations which come to a man the first time he makes a balloon ascension, Engineer Folsom said: "There is nothing for me to say except what I told you at first. Everything was perfect peace and quiet. Beyond that there was no sensation. I did not for a moment have any sensation of fear because there seemed to be nothing to be afraid of. I was delighted with the trip."

It was said at the Decatur hotel, where the men stopped, that Mr. Folsom had paid $15 for the privilege of making the trip.

When Prof. Myers was asked how his passenger behaved, he said: "He was perfectly cool and self possessed and told me that during the entire trip he saw nothing to be afraid of. He was intent on making observations most of the time."

The balloon in which the ascension was made was the one which has been captive at Monticello all week and had never before been cut loose. It is a hydrogen gas balloon with a capacity of 1500 cubic feet of gas. The travelers were seated in a basket six feet long, three feet wide and two and a half feet high. The basket was supported by sixteen ropes six inches apart and fastened above to a three and a half foot wooden ring.

Prof. Myers says that the people of Illinois are evidently afraid. He declares that he never had his balloon captive where it did such a small business as at Monticello. The first day there were only fifteen paid passengers. In order to get the business started many dead heads were carried. The second day there were thirty six paid passengers and the third sixty-five and the last day ninety-eight. Prof. Myers said that the balloon was busy most of the time, but it was carrying dead heads, who were being used to induce the people that there was no danger.

Prof. Myers said that this was his first trip to Illinois and that the view from his balloon when he and Folsom were making the trip was the most beautiful of any that he has ever seen. He declared that Illinois was the garden spot of the United States.

WEDDED SIXTY FIVE YEARS

Remarkable Experience of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Story.

Sixty-two years ago Friday occurred the marriage ceremony of Mr and Mrs William Story, a popular couple now residing their declining years quietly with their daughter, Mrs Scott, on East Post Bloomington. The anniversary was celebrated with a family reunion Friday last which is worthy of more than passing notice. Mr Story is a remarkably well preserved man of his years and is still able to attend to his business. Mrs Story is also well preserved for her years and is a most estimable lady. Both are natives of Kentucky and have resided in Illinois for many years. They have been married sixty-two years and have lived together without a break in the family circle. Their children, grandchildren and great grandchildren are all living and a number of relatives and friends gathered to congratulate the aged husband and wife on their good health and bid fair to live many more years. The long wedded life is remarkable and few couples have been privileged such longevity

Mr Story was born in Kentucky in 1816 and came with his parents to this state when he was 6 months old He antedate the conversion of Illinois from a territory to a state by two years His first presidential vote was cast for Henry Clay He removed with his parents to what is now White county, southeastern Illinois

Four Generations

A birthday surprise party was given Friday at the home of Mrs Emma Prench on North College street in honor of the 76th birthday of her mother, Grandma Anna Hyatt A big dinner was served and in the afternoon old songs and favorite recitations were given Twenty-two persons were present including seven great grandchildren They were John H Price, William Montgomery and Mrs Minnie Hall and their families Mr and Mrs A P Hopkins, Mr S M Baker and Miss Etta Foster.

JUMPED TO DEATH

Mrs. J. V. Simeral Was Killed By Jumping From Her Buggy.

THUNDER FRIGHTENS HORSE

And Fearing the Animal Was About to Runaway She Jumped—Her Death Followed An Hour Later.

Mrs James V Simeral met a sudden and violent death Saturday afternoon on Wood street. Evidently she feared that the horse she was driving was running away and jumped from the buggy. She fell to the paved street with such force that her skull was fractured and she died soon after.

Mrs Simeral had been driving with a lady friend and was at the time of the accident going east on Wood street near Union The latter that her horse was startled by a heavy peal of thunder and made a few jumps Mrs Simeral was alarmed fearing that the horse was running away She was seen to stand up on her feet in the buggy and then jump out over the wheels Her feet had scarcely touched the pavement when she fell backwards to the pavement with great force.

That happened just a few feet east of the Union street intersection. Several persons saw Mrs Simeral jump and ran to aid her. When they reached her she was unconscious and blood was flowing from wounds in her head Mrs. Norman Gonker in front of whose home the accident occurred, was among the first to reach the side of Mrs Simeral, who was carried into the Gonker home and there Drs A. P Morgan and Will Chenoweth were called Even a hasty examination was sufficient to show that Mrs Simeral was perhaps fatally hurt and that only an immediate operation could give her relief The Dawson ambulance was summoned to take her to the hospital but before it could arrive Mrs Simeral had breathed her last, not having regained consciousness. The accident happened about 3:45 and she lived about an hour

Mr Simeral, who is a traveling salesman arrived home on a 1 o'clock train and reached his wife in time to see her alive but she was not conscious The remains were removed to the family residence at 227 South Main street

The horse driven by Mrs Simeral was regarded as gentle and reliable The animal was stabled at the Palace barn on West Wood street and it was almost in front of that place that the accident occurred J P Nicholson, who is in charge of that barn, said that he thought the horse was not really running away because after Mrs Simeral jumped out of the buggy one of the stable men walked out in the street and spoke to the horse and he stopped There was no break in the harness and there was not the slightest damage to the buggy.

The rumors said that the injury which caused Mrs Simeral's death was the crushing of the skull No doubt she suffered other severe injuries, but that alone would have caused her death

Jennette Simeral was the daughter of Mr and Mrs W P James and was born in Macon Effingham county, 30 years ago She came to Decatur with her parents about seventeen years ago and has since resided here She was married to James V Simeral in this city fifteen years ago In addition to her husband she is survived by one son, Vincent aged 14 years Her other surviving relatives are her parents, Mrs P W Dempsey of Des Moines, Iowa, Mrs Schryon of Stanford, Conn; Mrs Edward Stutz, Mrs Will Leighton, Mrs Mary Cantwell sisters, and H C James brother, of Decatur, and Mrs Merkle a sister, of Springfield.

Mrs Simeral was well known and liked by a large circle of acquaintances who will mourn her untimely death. She was a member of the W R C of the auxiliary of the T P A, and a member of one of the Royal Neighbor camps. The time of the funeral has not been announced as word is awaited from one of the relatives living at a distance.

THEY CALL IT HOT.

England's "Turkish Bath" Weather Has the Britons Going.

Another broiling day yesterday, says the London Mail Although the temperature of 84 degrees was surpassed last week, it is doubtful whether the heat then was so noticeable as yesterday, that being a general prevalence of north easterly breezes last week compared with the dead calms or gentle southwesters of yesterday.

A little rain is reported from many districts in Scotland and Ireland, but, with the exception of some slight showers in the extreme north, there has been no rain in England.

The "bright sunshine" records were very high yesterday, there being over thirteen hours of it in eight meteorological stations London, Lowestoft, Hastings, Eastbourne Brighton, Worthing, Littlestone and Rhyl.

London suggested a large Turkish bath yesterday, and the "hottest" room was probably Shoreditch county court. Judge French was of opinion that he could keep warm without the aid of a wig, so that judicial appendage was dispensed with His honor offered the same privilege to the counsel engaged in the case.

During the sitting of the grand committee of the Commons yesterday, in consideration of the sale of intoxicating liquors to children bill, the heat was so oppressive that Sir Howard Vincent suggested that there would be no loss of dignity if the members sat in their shirt sleeves.

ROBBED A CHURCH

But the Thief Failed to Get Away With His Plunder.

A fellow by the name of Richardson robbed All Angels' Episcopal church on East Eldorado street sometime during the last few days. The police recovered the plunder but the thief got away. Several days ago a man who gave his name as Richardson and said that he was a mother, engaged board at the home of Miss Hattie Wiley at 1257 East Eldorado street. Saturday he left the house, presumably for the last time. Later he came back and when Miss Wiley refused him admission he said that he wanted to go to his room and get his clothes. Miss Wiley replied that he had no luggage and went to his room to look at the clothing which he said was behind the trunk. There she found in two bundles what appeared to be the surplices worn by choir boys. She informed the police who investigated and found that the goods had been stolen from All Angel's church. Richardson took alarm and got away before the police could get their hands on him, although a careful search of his known haunts was made.

James Cahill and Frank Hall have entered pleas of guilty in the county court to the charge of disturbing the peace by hunting on Sunday. They paid fines of $5 and costs.

PROVIDE GRAIN SAMPLES.

Railroad and Warehouse Commission to Assist the Grain Dealers.

The railroad and warehouse commission has taken action whereby dealers and shippers of grain will be provided with samples to be used as criterions for judging the grade of cereals. At present holders of grain have to rely on the inspectors to estimate the quality of their receipts and deliveries, but with a standard at hand they will be able to determine the grade themselves and the opportunity for comparison will remove a source of dissatisfaction.

It is the plan of the commission to establish a bureau at the board of trade, where samples may be obtained. An official will be placed in charge, and specimens of the various grades of grain will be furnished any and all dealers and shippers The work will be pushed and it is expected that within a few weeks the bureau will be in operation.

A second decision of equal importance was issued by the commission to the effect that on the outgoing inspection a leeway of 1 per cent shall be given grain holders on account of dust, dirt, and foreign particles that accumulate while the cereals are in storage for several months. The present standard for grains will still remain in effect when inspection is made prior to delivery, but so long as the grain comes within 1 per cent of the grade in which it was entered it will be allowed to remain in that class.

The proposed electric lighting of the Niagara Falls is causing some adverse comment. The desecration of the natural charms of this California wonderland, the engineer of the commission, however, Mr. Curry, is preparing for lights for four searchlights so placed as to light the falls from top to bottom, and also for the placing of about 700 incandescent lights on the Canada side at the hotels and cottages. It is clear that these will in no way interfere with the scenic effects, but would rather add to the comfort of visitors.

The most costly kitchen belongs to the Spanish court, the cooking utensils alone have a value of nearly $75,000, and are of great age. The kitchen of the Shah of Persia is, however, the most valuable in the world. Even the cooking pots are lined with gold and the plate and dishes used at the royal table are of solid gold, encrusted with precious stones. If it were to be able for the contents of the shah's kitchen to be put up at auction they would realize over $5,000,000.

UNIVERSITY DEGREES.

During the past academic year the degree of doctor of philosophy was conferred on 251 candidates by the various universities in the United States, as compared with 233 in 1900, 221 in 1899 and 251 in 1898. This is probably the largest number of degrees conferred during any one year since the development of our university system. There has been a steady advance of late years in the number of doctorates in the sciences. A few years back the humanities had decidedly the call, but the increasing number of students in what may be termed the exact and natural sciences is beginning to tell. The fact is evident in looking over the lists of some of the older institutions. At Yale and Harvard, for instance, where in former years the humanities had a large preponderance, things seem to be changing, and now the doctorates may be said to be evenly divided, while in those universities where science studies have usually predominated, there has been a marked increase in the candidates. It is worthy of note of the 253 degrees conferred this years there were doctorates in science, one each being given by Cornell, New York and Vanderbilt. In regard to this latter, there is a growing wish among university men that it should be used as an honorary degree and not a practical equivalent for the Ph. D. This seems to be emphasized by the fact that in no case has the Ph. D. been given this year cause honoris by any of the 27 universities reporting.

THE DINGLEY TARIFF AND ITS CRITICS

The claim that domestic competition under protection is always partly sure to make prices low enough, says the Louisville Post Journal, to vigorously denounced by the recent action of the wooden trust. The trust has been unable to monopolize the wooden trade and competition has been rife. The trust now strikes its profit by doing business for nothing, as a cut of 7 to 25 per cent implies.

Here is the efficiency of protection in preventing the trust from gobbling everything and in forcing the trust to commit suicide. The opponents of protection charge, one the one hand, that it promotes trusts, and, on the other hand, they charge that it promotes cut throat competition. The fact is that combinations are a world wide phenomenon, and the protective tariff simply saves the domestic market for the domestic consumer. A trust or attempted competition to compel us cutting its own throat, may arise and does arise in Great Britain and in the United States.

The critic who accuses the Dingley tariff of fostering trusts and in the next breath denounces it as nourishing cut throat competition does his case away. It would be just as logical to accuse the Dingley tariff of producing the drouth of last on potatoes.

The Dingley tariff has been in force in the period of greatest prosperity which the country has ever experienced. The period covered by the Wilson-Gorman tariff, which was the result of the work of the self-styled tariff reformers, covered four years of serious industrial depression in the United States.

The combination of protection and prosperity is as clear as the coincidence of free trade and adversity. Those who are now trying to get up an antiquity tariff agitation have against them eight years of significant history.

PORTO RICO PROTESTS.

We all remember the wail of woe that went up from the free traders of the country when the Foraker bill providing a tariff on imports to Porto Rico was enacted. The fact that the bill lived two years as the ultimate limit the tariff should be operative did not in the least mollify them. They went on from the first howl of complaint to the point where they declared it was taxation without representation. This being interpreted meant that the tariff is always a tax on the consumer and as the Porto Ricans had no voice in enacting the law, therefore, they were taxed without representation. Not satisfied with complaint for home consumption they explained to the Porto Ricans how they were being robbed and did all in their power to incite them to rebel against the government to correct the outrages. Notwithstanding the Porto Ricans were told the object of the tariff was to provide revenue to meet the expenses of government until they could provide a system of taxation to supplant the tariff, many of them were led to believe they had been mistreated in the matter which is evidenced by the fact that when free trade between Porto Rico and the United States was proclaimed they celebrated the event with great enthusiasm.

As regards the tariff laws Porto Rico is now in the same relation to them as the states and territories at home. But Porto Rico raises coffee and as there is no tariff on coffee it was not long until a cargo of coffee came in one of the Porto Rican ports from Brazil. Then the Porto Rican began to learn by experience. This coffee came in free. It represented no Porto Rican labor. It was not raised on Porto Rican soil which pays taxes to support the government. Those who produced it in Brazil were not paying one cent to the support of Porto Rico and yet under free sugar provision Brazil could peddle the coffee in Porto Rico and sell it in competition with the home grown product. The Porto Ricans then forgot all about taxation without representation and appealed to the government to drive the Brazilian coffee peddlers out, but the government, congress not being in session, could do nothing and so the Porto Ricans resorted to the boycott to protect themselves from this free trade opposition and finally forced the cargo of coffee out of the country. Free trade in coffee never all was not what they wanted. It would be the same as to any other product of Porto Rico and there you are. The free trader looked on and never said a word. Why did he not do as he did when the Foraker bill was passed tell the people of Porto Rico what their duty was. Why did they not tell them it was all right and that the proper thing was to receive the coffee from Brazil in order that the way might be open for them to sell coffee in Brazil that if they did not buy abroad they could not sell abroad? Why did they not tell the Porto Ricans that the true rule is to "buy where you can buy the cheapest and sell where you can sell the dearest." They should have told them if the Brazilian could sell their coffee in Porto Rico cheaper than the home grown article it would pay the people of Porto Rico cheaper coffee as it would force the Porto Rican farmer to sell as cheap as the Brazilian importer or use another market and if they failed they could go out of the coffee business. They did no such thing. Why? Because even the Porto Rican would have laughed them to scorn.

A MATTER OF HONOR.

The steel workers of South Chicago at a second meeting since President Shaffer declined his resignation refused to reconsider their resolution not to obey the order. As soon as it was announced that they refused to recall Shaffer, Michael F. Tighe, assistant secretary to President Shaffer, and by the latter's authority, revoked the charter of both lodges, Lake side and Commercial. The moral effect of this revocation is to brand the lodges as traitors to the cause for which Shaffer ordered the strike.

To every honest man it must appear that the men whom Shaffer brands as traitors have the best of the situation. Shaffer's demand involved the surrender of their self respect and honor. It involved proclaiming to the people to honest men everywhere that not only the word but the written agreement of the Amalgamated association is a mere sham and utterly worthless. The steel workers of South Chicago only recently entered into an agreement with their employers, covering all matters pertaining to a wage scale, but an agreement which fixes the time it shall cover. These workmen have decided they are morally and legally bound to keep their part of the contract as they expect their employers to keep their part of it. It is for this that Shaffer brands them as traitors and revokes their charter. The least that can be said for Shaffer's attitude in this respect is that it is the rankest of folly and inimical to their interests of this branch of organized labor. The traitor is Shaffer and not the men he has branded as traitors and so the people will regard it.

If, as Shaffer seems to wish to have it, an agreement on the part of the members of the association, over which he presides, with employers, is binding only upon the employer, why should a man or men with the ability to employ and pay labor be expected to trifle with the laws of business by entering into a contract with men who by their past conduct say to them that they do not expect to keep their part of the agreement only so long as it is convenient to do so.

This is precisely the condition Shaffer is trying to bring about. He has called thousands of men belonging to his association, who have not considered their honor, as the South Chicago men have, to violate their obligations and yet while he is doing this his object is to force the steel corporation to sign an agreement. The world will not think it strange then the steel corporation refuses.

The Chicago men can afford to be charged with disloyalty to the order. That charge can not hurt them, coming from its source it does, and the time will come if they remain firm when their comrades in the east, who have done what they have refused to do, will acknowledge the correctness of their position and will thank them for refusing to yield to Shaffer's dishonest and unreasonable demands.

THE MCKEESPORT MAYOR.

The mayor of McKeesport is now explaining. When the strike was first declared he lost his head. He probably expects to run again for mayor and imagine that there were more votes among the strikers than among the employers he proclaimed in a top lofty manner that he was mayor and would give the mills no protection. The result was that the steel corporation immediately proceeded to dismantle and remove one of the mills. This rausued the business men of McKeesport for the reason that the town is the product of the mills. It is said 10 million dollars are paid out there annually for wages. This money in turn is paid to business and professional men to supply the wants of the men who work in the mills and removing the mills means killing the town so dead it will never again need a mayor. Of course it is not likely that all the mills will be removed, but if one or two can be moved so can all of them be moved and the dismantling of even one involves great danger and loss to those in the city who own stores, real estate and other property. This has made the people very nervous and apprehensive and they have spoken many plain words of and to the mountebank mayor and the result is he has become nervous and is laying the blame on the newspapers, which he claims misquoted him. Perhaps the newspapers will be able to remember whether he was misquoted or not and may be able to take care of themselves. Be that as it may this mayor, while claiming he was misquoted, is too much of a shyster to explain what he did say. He wants what was attributed to him as a statement to stand so far as the workmen are concerned but he wants his denial to stand so far as the business and professional men are concerned. He is a demagogue, that is all. In the end he will have no friends on one side or the other, for he has done harm to all, being neither a safe friend nor a dangerous enemy. His name is Black and its ten to one he will never again be the mayor of McKeesport.

THE COST OF DEFENDING THE CUP.

The exact sum of money paid for the Columbia in 1899 is not known, but the sum has been estimated at not less than $150,000, says a writer in Frank Leslie's. Without a doubt it cost over $50,000 to carry her through the season. In the first part of the season her owners paid $16,000 for three suits of sails. And then there was the Defender, which acted as a trial horse to the Columbia. It cost just $50,000 for her to be a trial horse, but it was paid without a groan. And now for the present season.

It will have been noticed that the construction of each cup defender has cost infinitely more than its predecessor. The fact is, the Herreshoffs have charged several thousands of dollars to or each minute of extra speed. Following those deductions the Constitution has unquestionably cost not a cent less than $200,000 to build. She has a large tender, the steamboat Mount Hope, and a crew of 68 men. She has three or four suits of sails, extra spars and the like, and she will go into dry-dock before the cup races. Outside of the $200,000 spent on her construction she will probably cost the Belmont syndicate about $80,000. Then there is the cost of the trial horse, the Columbia. She will carry a crew of 10 men, each of whom will receive $25 a month in wages. That makes $2,200 a month; $11,000 for the five months she will be in commission. The wages of Capt. Barr and the first and second mates will aggregate for those five months $6,000; the tender will cost $7,000. Uniforms for the men have already resulted in an expenditure of $1,000 and there is the cost of feeding them to be considered. This makes $25,000, and her sails and spars and overhauling and other particulars will easily cost another $25,000.

It will thus be seen that, all in all, $350,000 is a conservative estimate of the cost of defending the cup this year.

TROTTING OUT THE THOROUGHBREDS

Washington Press: "Not ready to report." And they begin to call for the head pipes of the eloquent Jawtest, First Dullyer; then Pete Hepburn; then Bob Cousins, then Lacey; then Allison; then Smith, M. C., from the Blairs got up but they cut called him and yelled "report." They had permined wind enough and wanted the report, and a lot of a fight on the contests, and a whack for final against amnesties. Smith took his seat, but when the chairman said the committee would not be in for an hour, the howlers yelled "Smith" and he made the best speech in the lot.

As the boys fellows were pulled in one by one from the gap, we thought of our old county, Lake, when the crack stallions, bulls and other varmints were brought into the ring and walked around, for word of judgment. It was very like.

The war which has sprung up suddenly between coal and petroleum for fuel reminds one that this situation was not expected. The question has been how long the coal fields would be able to meet the demands of commerce for coal. There have been many who ventured predictions in relation to the matter that almost suggested the end of the universe as a habitable place. Yet before there appears the least danger, oil springs in in such quantities that is is offered as fuel for from 10 to 20 cents a barrel, with new wells coming in almost daily. How long the production of oil will last no one is able to say, but the chances are that it is as regards territory which is and will produce it equal to the territory which yields coal. In any event, there is no present danger of being without fuel.

George L. Inman of Champaign, who caused an overhauling of Broker Phillips' books, and as a result was found to have been overpaid to the extent of $3500, has expressed a willingness to refund the amount. Of course he would have to make restitution, but a willingness to do so is always commendable when a man is beaten at his own game.

BRADLEY BROS.

Three years ago, about this time, the American volunteers took the city of Manila and the stars and stripes replaced the Spanish flag. In a few days 600 American school teachers will land and will be cheered by the natives more than they cheered the American volunteer. This means the little red school house. The little red school house means intelligence and loyalty and loyalty means a prosperous and free people. The Americans know what is needed in a new colony and the time will soon come when the Filipino will be as loyal to the flag and his great country as our own people at home.

The men at the Joliet steel mills have reconsidered their decision not to strike and voted to strike. Mr. Tighe, who revoked the charter of the South Chicago lodges, met the Joliet people in a meeting and served notice that he was there by authority to revoke their charters unless they voted to strike and they so voted. There are some people who may consider this a strange kind of free ballot—a strange way of governing by free consent. The order of free consent is something like the sacredness of a contract.

A census bulletin relating to Mississippi reveals the fact that few foreigners ever locate there. Less than 1 per cent of the population are foreign born. The foreign born element of school age is only one-tenth of 1 per cent of the whole. Nearly all the males of voting age are of native birth. This is proportionately true of nearly all the southern states and only emphasizes the fact that the great northern and western portions of he country are the builders and promoters of national growth.

Some of the Joliet people who were forced to strike by Tighe have as a result of a former strike been at work only two weeks. Those have all broken an agreement signed at that time and are as the result of their former lilliness in destitute condition. It is too bad that some better plan of settling disputes is not provided. The thought of the sufferings of women and children under conditions which prevail during such a strike is terrible.

C. H. Payson, recently appointed by Gov. Yates to membership in the state commission of claims, and who it was subsequently learned had served a term in the Kansas penitentiary, has resigned in consideration of the feelings of the governor and to relieve him from embarrassment. The governor accepts the resignation and states that he was not acquainted with Payson's record when he appointed him.

A fair corn crop does not necessarily presage hard times for the farmer, as the indications point to above a double average price for what corn there will be. The fellow who continues the corn is the one who will suffer.

The secretary of state of Ohio has invited the steel trusts in his state, under the law, to show how the concern does its business in Ohio. The notice was mailed to Mr. Schwab.

The Republicans of Iowa had a hot time naming a state ticket, but its popularity indicates that the time spent in fighting it out at the primaries was not wasted.

CROPS IN FOUR STATES.

D. N. Syford Says Nebraska Is Not in Need of Sympathy.

D. N. Syford of Lincoln, Neb., arrived here Saturday for a visit with W. H. Starr and family and other friends. It was reported that he was coming through on horseback, Mr. Syford says that he is not responsible for the report. The most he ever said about the matter was that he "had started on horseback," and has plenty of witnesses in Lincoln to prove it. He was formerly a resident of this city, but has been in Lincoln since 1875 and has long since forsaken the telegraph key for the delights of the farm, now being a successful farmer and stock raiser. He is not one of those who believes that the corn crop is entirely ruined. Speaking of crop conditions, he says: "The general condition is not encouraging now to either the producer or the consumer. There is not much choice of condition between Illinois, southern Iowa, southwestern Nebraska, northern Kansas or Missouri. I think that Nebraska will show up as well as any of these states, with about 20 per cent of a corn crop. Of course there will not be so many cattle fed in Nebraska. The small farmer or feeder will not make feeding a business this winter. Last winter there were fewer cattle fed on 28 cent corn than there were the previous winter on cheap corn. However, those who fed on a large scale will not diminish their herds materially on account of the high-priced corn. In our section chinch bugs damaged the corn slightly before we felt the effects of the drought. After that we began to feel the effects of the 'Kansas hot winds.' The latter assisted the chinch bugs in hurting the early planted corn but the later planted corn did not suffer. Prospects in Illinois and other states in the corn belt are [illegible] alike to me. I think, however, that the damage has been overestimated. I feel sure that we will be able to show up one-third of a crop of marketable corn, one-fourth of a crop of oats and two-thirds of a wild hay crop. We have had the best wheat crop raised in any western state, an average of 38 bushels to the acre. Nebraska is not asking sympathy from any state. We are right in the corn belt and the wheat belt, too. Nebraska produced in 1899 forty-two million bushels of corn, forty-five million bushels of wheat, 750,000 head of cattle surplus, 2,000,000 head of hogs surplus, while poultry products amounted to over $7,000,000. We will show up at sixty million bushels of wheat this year. Look along the Burlington route in the South Platte country and it appears one grand wheat field from the Missouri river to the western boundary. The chinch bugs affected the corn fields adjacent to oats fields in the early part of the season, but we have two remedies for the future. One is to burn the old grass and the oats stubble in the early spring and the other is to place the immediated hog among what remains. In this way we expect to take care of the chinch bug problem. Just say to our sympathizers that Nebraska is all right and that it will require class A locomotives to pull Nebraska hay, hogs, cattle and wheat to your consumers this winter."

COMPANY GOES TO CAMP

And Goodman's Band Returns Home After a Week There.

Captain Cassell and the members of Company H left Saturday morning for Springfield, where they will be in camp for the coming week with the other companies constituting the Fifth regiment. Before leaving an inspection of the company was held by Captain Cassell and his men went over in first-class shape. New hats and new coats were issued to them.

Goodman's Fourth Regiment band arrived home Saturday morning from Springfield after their first experience in camp. They enjoyed the outing very much, and, of course, made a very favorable impression.

They won the reputation of being not only the best band the Fourth regiment ever had, but the best that has been in Springfield during the summer. The members received many compliments, not only on their music, but on their military appearance and conduct as well. Friday evening, with the colored band of the regiment, they gave a concert on the lawn at the governor's mansion and delighted a large crowd of Springfield people. Afterwards they were received by Governor Yates and wife.

GULF COAST STORM

Mobile, Aug. 17. The gulf coast, from Pensacola to New Orleans, is at last under view by telegraph communication, having been restored. Aside from the damages to wharves, boat houses, sail boats, smacks, trees, outhouses and fences, instances of accidents are few. Steel Workers at Bay View Vote to Join in the Big Steel Strike.

REOFERN WAS AGAINST IT

President of the Lodge Vainly Urges Men to Stand by First Decision.

Milwaukee, Aug. 16. Bayview lodge of the Amalgamated association at the close of a session lasting five hours tonight decided to obey Shaffer's orders to strike. The plant of the Illinois Steel company will be shut down indefinitely and about 1,000 men will be affected by it.

When the meeting was called to order this afternoon Assistant Secretary Eight-of-Patterson and Vice President Davis of South Chicago appealed to the men to reconsider their action and obey Shaffer's mandate. President Joseph Reofern of Bayview lodge took the platform next and was followed by others who were in favor of an out. The speaking occupied five hours and it was nearly 9 o'clock when the secret ballot was taken. The result showed a majority in favor of the strike. When the result was announced a motion to make the vote unanimous was carried without a dissenting vote.

GIVES THEM GREAT JOY.

Action at Milwaukee Inspires New Hope.

Pittsburg, Aug. 17. The news tonight that the Milwaukee men had decided to cast their fortunes with the strikers supplemented by the word announcement that the tool men at the Riverside plant at Wheeling had voted to strike, awakened new enthusiasm in the ranks of the Amalgamated association. There had been some doubt as to the final decision of the Milwaukee lodges and it was feared if the vote was adverse that Joliet might reconsider its last previous vote and that the chances of winning Chicago would be greatly reduced. The Milwaukee vote inspires them with the hope that Chicago can be prevailed upon to once more reconsider its vote and finally decide to come over to the strikers. When the news from Milwaukee reached here tonight it was quickly spread among the strikers. They were highly enthusiastic over it and there were assurances of complete confidence in the final success of their contest against the United States Steel corporation.

The word from Milwaukee and Wheeling came after a day of exceeding quiet in and throughout the strike districts. The mayor of the mountain mills in operation were not increased during the day and another sale lot made an important move. The employes of the Penn seamless Tube works plants in this city controlled by the National Tube company completed their organization as a lodge of the American Federation of Labor today and made a demand on the management for a general advance in wages. There are about one thousand employes at the works and it is claimed that 875 of them joined. If they refuse to grant the demands are ready to walk out. The lodge elected to join the strike and their demands are couched in the form of a request. The matter will be taken up Monday and it is believed the demands will be agreed to.

The officials are making a determined effort to create dissension among the men employed by the great steel trust and the Carnegie mill. It is understood they have decided to shut down the Duquesne mill entirely and that the men who have been there will be called out probably tomorrow or Monday.

WISCONSIN LEGISLATORS

Claim Executive Branch of Government Has Interfered.

Milwaukee, Aug. 17.—The Wisconsin Republican league, which has just been organized by a large number of members of the last legislature, issued an address to the republicans of Wisconsin tonight. The league is the outgrowth of a bitter factional strife which prevailed in the last legislature, especially in the attempt to pass a primary election bill, which was eventually killed. The address recites that the organization shall be permanent and among other things, says the public interest demands that among the several departments of the government there be candid and courteous co-operation.

The address follows:

"The undersigned members of the legislature of 1901 are convinced the Republican party of Wisconsin is upon the verge of a crisis which can only be averted by an organized effort on the part of all Republicans who consider the party welfare above personal ambition.

"As representatives of the people we view with alarm the persistent ... to encroach upon the executive ... department of the ... the Constitution ...

"Legislative power shall be vested in the senate and assembly.' The perpetuity of our institutions depends upon the independence and autonomy of each of the coordinate branches of our government. Neither is responsible to the other, but each is responsible to the people. Neither should dictate to, or ... from the other. Any attempt to subordinate the legislative department to the control of the executive is revolutionary and all secrets prompt and condemnable action.

"Public interest demands that among the several departments there shall be ... and comity ... but fundamental ... questions are ... and vital than party success ... If "Any unwarrantable interference with the exclusive powers of the Legislature and attempts to coerce or bribe ... in unreasonable acts and unwise experiments at the last session were contrary to the welfare of the people of Wisconsin, and created a bitter factional difference in the Republican party.

"The party must not permit itself to be divided, and possibly destroyed by factional disputes. Its purposes are too high, and its work too important to be dominated for personal ends.

"For these reasons we present to you the necessity of wholesome organization which shall truly represent the whole party and safeguard its principles. We have not in contemplation an organization for a single campaign but one that shall be permanent and as comprehensive as the party it represents."

Riots on a Steamer.

New York, Aug. 17. There were two riots today on board the steamer General Slocum, which carried excursionists between New York and Rockaway Beach. On arriving at Rockaway several men were arrested. On the way back it is reported another and more serious riot occurred in which twenty-seven men were injured. It is said that eighty-six men were put into the hold.

The expedition commanded by Stockl a relative of the missing Norwegian meteorologist of that name sent in search of Andree, Stockholm and other lost members of the Andree expedition arrived at Spitzbergen this morning, after having explored the south coast of Franz Josef land. Von Waldersee is Accused in Germany of Glorifying Himself.

GIVES GREAT BRITAIN A SLAP

Intimates Country Was Not Up to Standard Established by Other Nations.

Berlin, Aug. 17.—Since the funeral of the Dowager Empress Frederick this has been Field Marshal Count Von Waldersee's week. Immediately after the interment of the remains a chorus of criticism of Von Waldersee broke forth in the press, owing, to his speech at Hanover. Papers of the most different shade ... worthy of Von Waldersee's talkativeness, which is regarded as not only an bad taste in dilution another ... but ... whose time ... piled in China.' ... as ... nations ... Chief ... Empire ... Transvaal ... recent ... papers ... with which ... Waldersee ... meant as the ... who ... name ... They ... it could only ... been Great Britain and ... the reference is recorded as having ... direct as to be ... impolite. The Anglophobe papers however, rejoice that Count Von Waldersee 'exposed himself ... but even these ... advise him to 'speak loudly or not ... all.'

One of the most interesting inferences drawn from Waldersee's speeches is ... that he hopes to become Count Von Bucky's successor as chancellor. This is widely believed, but no one who saw how ... and weary Von Waldersee looked in the funeral procession can ... credit the story.

Various Imperial Heroine fold soldiers' societies are planning Von Waldersee ... celebrations.

The tariff bill continues to be discussed in a lively manner. The most interesting events this week in connection with the tariff agitation were the declaration of the Central association against the maximum and minimum duties on cereals and the Agrarian answer thereto. The declaration's outraged Kreuz Zeitung that the paper threatened that the Agrarians would vote to abolish the ... duties which are most oppressive to the agriculture and then vote ... protection on manufactured goods. The Deutsche Tages Zeitung in leading Agrarian organization applauds the Kreuz Zeitungs threat. The general secretary of the General association, Herr Rueck, publishes a long reply, reasserting the association's opposition to the double system of duties, since as "hindrance to the commercial treaties which is the life or death question for the manufacturers."

The above controversy seems to portend the breach between the manufacturers and Agrarians, which may have decisive influence upon tariff legislation.

The Breslau chamber of commerce has unanimously passed a resolution against the maximal and minimal duties and the largest manufacturers of Anhalt and the province of Saxony have unanimously adopted resolution against every increase in duties.

PROTECT GERMAN INTERESTS.

Various papers discuss the South American trouble.

The Post this morning, referring to the steps contemplated by Germany, says: "The imperial government, of course, has no intention of moving itself up in America in quarrels, for Germany has no political interests there to defend. On the other hand the important financial business interests of German subjects demand adequate protection which the government will give."

The Post does not believe that the newspapers of the United States will see in this a violation of the Monroe doctrine, since Germany's action is wholly unobjected and merely protective of business interests. The papers also believe that Washington will find nothing objectionable in Germany's action.

Official circles here admitted to the correspondent of the Associated Press today that the Post's utterances on the subject of Germany's South American policy were inspired, emphasizing the fact that the authorities at Washington were fully informed as to Germany's intentions and were satisfied therewith.

The papers here devote a very large amounts of space to the second trial at Guatemozin of two non-commissioned officers charged with being concerned in the murder of Captain von Krosigk, which has not developed anything decisive up to the present. Evidence against the prisoners appears weak.

SMOOTH PROMOTER

Alleged to Have Worked Bank Swindle Involving Seven Million.

Baltimore, Aug. 17.—The details of alleged attempts to swindle banks on a large scale by means of fraudulent corporations, fictitious notes, is told in a petition filed today in the Baltimore county circuit court at Townsend for a receiver for the Manor Lumber company of that town. The amount involved, according to the petition, is over $7,000,000, and it is asserted the scheme has been at least partially successful.

Benjamin W. Cross of Cincinnati is the plaintiff, and, according to the story told by him, he was induced to accept certificates of stock in the Manor company by Charles E. Cockran, the originator and promoter of the scheme, which stock he subsequently transferred back to Cockran.

Cross learned since, he says, the company was not incorporated for the purpose of doing a legitimate business, but was formed by Cockran as a part of a scheme for alleged swindling.

Cockran, being already interested in some legitimate companies, notably the Chesapeake Lumber company, the American Hardwood company of Cincinnati with branches throughout the east and west, organized about twenty smaller companies, it is alleged, ostensibly engaged in the lumber business from which he would on demand receive from one to five thousand m. negotiable paper, payable to the order of any of the parent companies needing it. This paper was discounted in enormous quantities, the bill alleges, at various banks in the country, they being led to believe ... notes represented a bona fide sale of lumber. In pursuance with the scheme, the bill says Cockran has been discounting among the banks of the country worthless paper aggregating at least $7,000,000.

Colombian Government is Not Held Responsible For Venezuelan Invasion.

BUT CONSERVATIVE ELEMENT

Is Accused of Assisting Revolutionists in Fight Against Castro.

New York, Aug. 17.—The following cable message has been received by the Associated Press from Torres Gardenas, general secretary of President Castro of Venezuela, in reply to a despatch addressed to the president asking him for a statement of the Venezuela-Colombia situation:

"Caracas, Venezuela.—In the name of his excellency, General Castro, I reply to your cablegram in the following terms:

"The government of Venezuela, presided over by General Castro, is fully justified in all its works and acts. It is essentially liberal in its practices. It is the opinion that the conservatives of Colombia, probably led by ruinous and wicked passions, have resolved to assist in the revolutionary movement against Venezuela and her government.

"All of this has been actually proven by the official publications issued by the cabinet in Bogota. They date from the first of April. This view has not been denied either by the conservative government of Colombia or by her envoy extraordinary and minister plenipotentiary in this capital.

"When the government of Venezuela was surprised by the first and second invasions of her frontier by six thousand and two thousand men respectively, the invaders were victoriously expelled by the government and the people of Venezuela.

"Since said events ten thousand men have been massed on the frontier for the defense of the integrity of Venezuela and its national honor. These are quite apart from her active service troops on the other parts of the frontier as well as the national troops scattered over the republic and the reserve militia now under arms.

"Venezuela has not accepted the invasion as an international attack by the people of Colombia against the people of Venezuela, but knowing its real source, recognizes in it the work of the conservative government of Colombia against the majesty of the nation of Venezuela. Torres Gardenas, General Secretary."

REPULSE FOUR THOUSAND.

Washington, Aug. 17.—The department of state has received a despatch dated August 1st, from the consul at Maracaibo, reporting that Dr. Rangel Carbinan has invaded Venezuela, with 4,000 men from the frontier of Cucuta. Everything was done by the Venezuelan government to meet the invaders. In the first fight the invaders took two steamers to come to Maracaibo, but these boats were recaptured by the Venezuelan troops.

TWO DECREES.

The Venezuelan government has issued the two following decrees dated respectively July 27 and 28:

General Diego Bouslata Ferrer, provisional president of the state of Zulia.

Considering that peace in general has been greatly disturbed by the invasion of Venezuelan territory with an armed force of Colombians, commanded by the traitor, Carlos Rangel Caridras, as per declaration issued yesterday by the provisional president of the republic, and in compliance with the dispositions on public order therein specified, suspending rights of guarantee referred to in the national constitution, the following decree is issued:

Article 1. Until public peace is reached I declare suspended guarantees referred to in the constitution of the state of Zulia.

2. Complimentary dispositions shall be dictated by the secretary of state.

3. The secretary of state is charged with the execution of this decree and will communicate the same publicly and diffuse it in order that it may be known to all. (Signed.) Diego Baulistat Ferrer.

The other decree, signed by President Castro and his entire cabinet says:

The federal executive of the United States of Venezuela, using the attributes conferred by him in number 21 of article 80 of the national constitution and considering that public peace has been disturbed in towns of the Venezuelan frontier of the state of Tachira by invasion in arms from Colombia, issues the following decree:

Article 1. The rights referred to in the national constitution are hereby suspended in the state of Tachira, Merida, Trujillo and Maracaibo.

Article 2. The rights of Venezuelans referred in the same constitution are also suspended in the rest of the states of the republic, federal, district and national territories.

Article 3. The president of the state, governor of federal district and governor of federal territories shall regulate this present decree in their respective jurisdiction in accordance to the supreme necessities of public order.

CONVICT HAS NOVEL PLEA.

Prisoner With Romantic History Would Attend Encampment.

Benjamin De Lamos, a United States prisoner, in the penitentiary, will petition Attorney General Knox for permission to attend the national Grand Army encampment at Cleveland next month. De Lamos served through the civil war with a Massachusetts regiment. He has never missed a Grand Army encampment and does not want to break the record. He will tell the attorney general that he will go to the encampment under guard and furnish a bond of $1000 to insure his return to the prison. The general impression among the penitentiary officials is that his petition will be granted.

DeLamos was for many years a tramp. On one night of his vagrant career he slept in the speaker's chair in the Alabama legislative hall. Two years later he had pulled himself together, had himself elected to the general assembly and occupied as presiding officer of the lower house the very chair in which he slept as a tramp. Many prominent men of Alabama are working for his release and a pardon is expected from the president soon. He was convicted of fraud in connection with a negro's pension money.

Good Land for Wheat.

There has been taken into Spokane, Washington, from the Big Bend country, a bunch of wheat that sprang from a single grain. There are seventy-eight heads averaging four inches in length, and it is estimated that the lot carried 6804 grains. That is a large increase, but it is typical of that great wheat belt, extending from eastern Washington into this state. The soil is marvelously productive, having no counterpart anywhere in the world for such a large area.—Boise, (Idaho) Statesman.

TOWN SITE SALES.

The sale of the lots in the government town sites began on the morning of August 6 ... the towns of Lawton, Anadarko and Hobart, county seat of the three new counties. At that time ... in front of the auctioneers were a surging mass of surging humanity. ... a site had been reserved for the court house and around that block was generally looked upon as the most desirable property. ... had been generally conceded that lots might sell for from $200 to $400. The rivalry for the possession of the best lots became so great that the day before the sale conservative estimates figured the sale of choice lots as high as $2000. That estimate proved ... as the corner lot ... the courthouse site sold for $1805. ... the block sold ... The bidding was somewhat ... as the auctioneer went ... to less desirable lots. ... the sale that caused ... the fact that lots were sold according to the numerical location ... GOOD FOR JIM WOOD.

This rule of the commissioners made business good for Jim Woods, the man who drew the first claim in the Lawton district. Wood selected a quarter section running the full length of the town site and when the lot sale went along so slow the ... opened for business on Wood's claim. Some leased lots from Woods and others squatted on the claim without permission and opened shops and stores. In fact, by the second day of the sale the busiest street in the town was on Wood's claim. By that time several contests had been filed against the Wood claim and that served to complicate matters there to the intense satisfaction of the squatters. One of the grounds for contest against Wood was the fact that instead of selecting one of the two quarter sections lying in squares along the edge of the town site Wood had filed on the four forty acre tracts running the full length of the town site and hence causing Miss Beal, the holder of No. 2 claim to file beyond the Wood claim. It had been generally accepted that quarter sections would be taken in squares, but no attempt was made by the commissioners ... as he did. Now that the claim has been contested it will remain for the courts to decide as to his rights. Since Wood's luck came to him there have been circulated various rumors about him. He has been charged with being a banker, a shrewd lawyer, and other things. The truth is that Wood is an ordinary laboring man, pos-

A running fight ensued between DeFord and the gamblers in which the deputy killed a horse and an Indian.

STREET FAIR SCENES.

A street fair, a circus and a wild west show combined aptly describe the scene in Lawton the first few days. New buildings are being rapidly erected and the town begins to assume shape. RAILROAD WORK.

Railroad construction ... Oklahoma to the front at a tremendous pace. Through the recently opened lands the Rock Island is rapidly building. Through the western portion of the territory the great Choctaw route is working miracles. Within a year the northern extension of the Choctaw has been pushed to the northern limits of the territory, and the western extension which has now reached Elk City on the border of Roger Mills county will soon bring that fertile district in touch with commerce. The Choctaw is laying out a terminal point at the new town of Red River in the southern part of Roger Mills county which is looked to as a coming town. Sidetracks are already being laid and the contractors say that the road will be turned over to the railroad company completed to Red River within ninety days. Such a period of railroad construction work as the present has never been seen in the west.

High Priced Hogs.

Rainey Miller of Champaign county, a breeder of swine, attended a sale in Ohio a few days ago and purchased a Poland-China boar, for which he paid $1700. To a man who is not up in hogology this may seem to be a big price. Top Chief, as the animal is known to breeders of swine, is a famous animal and has won many prizes, and in a hog way his pedigree is the rarest. A Galesburg breeder said the Champaign county man had a bargain in Top Chief and if Rainey was dissatisfied he (the Galesburg man) would take the hog at $1700, which he considered was $500 less than his real value.

There are plenty of instances of good luck among horse owners, but few men if any ever had the good fortune of George H. Ketcham, owner of that greatest horse of all times, Cresceus. However, the order was not carried out at once and Cresceus improved so rapidly that it was rescinded.

During the following winter he was worked a bit on the snow and showed a fine turn of speed for a youngster. He was started in two races as a two-year-old and stepped a very fast mile over the Erie, Mich., track. Again during the winter he was out for brushes on the snow.

By this time Mr. Ketcham, being sure he had a horse that was worth all the time and trouble that he could spend on him, began to train him regularly. His history from the time he was a 3 year old is pretty well known. Starting at that time with a record of 2:11¼ he has cut down his mark by seconds or more every year except one. Mr. Ketcham thinks he has a trotter who will do better than two minutes. And before the year is out it would not be a great surprise if the trotting record were better than Star Pointer's world' pacing mark, 1:59¼.

EFFECT OF IMAGINATION

Made One Man Sick and Another One Well.

In "A Journalist's Note Book," Frank F. Moore (The Cleveland Medical Gazette) tells an amusing and significant story of the influence of imagination upon health.

A young civil servant in India, feeling fagged from the excessive heat and from long hours of work, consulted the best doctor within reach. The doctor looked him over, sounded his heart and lungs, and then said gravely: "I will write you tomorrow."

The next day the young man received a letter telling him that his left lung was gone and his heart seriously affected, and advising him to lose no time in adjusting his business affairs. "Of course, you may live for weeks," the letter said, "but you had best not leave important matters undecided."

Naturally the young official was dismayed at so dark a prognosis—nothing less than a death warrant. Within twenty-four hours he was having difficulty with his respiration and was seized with an acute pain in the region of the heart. He took to his bed with the feeling that he should never rise from it. During the night he became so much worse that he sent for the doctor.

"What on earth have you been doing to yourself?" demanded the doctor. "There were no indications of this sort when I saw you yesterday."

"It is my heart, I suppose," weakly answered the patient.

"My heart?" ... then?"

"What is the matter with you, man? You do not seem to have been drinking."

"You let ... ?" ... the patient. "You said I had only a few weeks to live."

"Are you crazy?" said the doctor. "I wrote you to take a few weeks' vacation ... and you would be all right."

... the patient drew the letter ... and ... the lost lines and gave it to the doctor.

"Heavens!" exclaimed that gentleman as he glanced at it. "That was meant for another man! My assistant misplaced the letters."

The young man at once sat up in bed and made a rapid recovery.

And what of the patient for whom the fateful diagnosis was intended? Delighted with the report that a sojourn in the hills would set him right, he started at once, and five years later was alive and in fair health.

School For Negroes in Illinois

El Dorado, Ill., Aug. 17.—Preparations are under way for the opening of the new colored industrial school near this place, the coming fall. The school will follow the lines of work used in the Tuskegee, Ala., college, of which Prof. Booker T. Washington is president. The institution will be the only distinctive colored college in Illinois. For over two years a systematic effort has been on foot by the Cuba Libre association, of which J. D. Alston is president, to secure sufficient funds to purchase lands for the establishment of the institution. These efforts have met with such success that a tract of land on which is a large residence only a short distance from El Dorado has been purchased and paid for except a small indebtedness.

Live Stock Gossip.

Chicago, Aug. 19. Cattle With much smaller supply than most buyers and sellers looked for, prices turned up, there at all desirable in quality being largely 5 to 10 cents higher than late last week. Native beef steers are in much better demand than usual. Only a small percentage received graded choice, offerings running largely to fair to good cattle, with far too many thin steers. Exporters were good buyers and there was fair inquiry for stockers and feeders. A good many fair to medium stockers and feeders were carried over from last week. Western range cattle are plentiful, active and steady.

Hogs With a supply that was not at all burdensome, sellers felt justified in asking higher prices. Trade was brisk from the start. Selling was 5 to 10 cents higher than Saturday.

Sheep Receipts were unexpectedly large and prices declined sharply last week. There was active demand, however, and prices were mostly steady.

FUNERAL OF FRANCIS DEPRAY

Services Held at Catholic Church in Macon Monday Morning.

The funeral of the late Francis Depray took place Monday at Macon at 10 a. m. and the services were largely attended. The interment was in the Waltz cemetery.

Frances Depray died at the residence of his son, L. E. Depray, two miles north of Blue Mound, Friday morning, of dropsy. He was born in France Aug. 16, 1823, being at the time of his death 78 years old. When five years old he came with his parents to Wayne county, Ohio, where he lived until 1863, when he moved to this state, settling on the farm where he died. His wife died two years ago. One son, F. E. Depray, and three daughters, Mrs. Matt Day, Mrs. Fred Ketchum and Mrs. Millard Pope, survive him. The son lives on the homestead, two of the daughters, Mrs. Day and Mrs. Ketchum, live in Khmarx county, Kas., and the other daughter, Mrs. Pope, lives in Carroll county, Mo.

No Damage.

Recent telegraphic reports concerning the ice storm along the gulf coast stated that the rice crop had been seriously damaged. This is not true, at least as regards the fields at Crowley. Monday Laughlin & Cloud received the following dispatch from W. J. W. Dyson —"No ice or storm here, everything is all right."

It may have been true that the storm damaged some rice fields along the coast, but it did not reach to the Crowley district, where the prospects for a big yield are said to be most close.

A YOUNG LADY'S LIFE SAVED

At Panama, Colombia, by Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarhoea Remedy.

Dr. Charles H. Utter, a prominent physician of Panama, Colombia, in a recent letter, states: "Last March I had as a patient a young lady sixteen years of age, who had a very bad attack of dysentery. Everything I prescribed for her proved ineffectual and she was growing worse every hour. Her parents were sure she would die. She became so weak that she could not turn over in bed. What to do at this critical moment was a study for me, but I thought of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and as a last resort, prescribed it. Within eight hours she was feeling much better, and inside of three days she was upon her feet and at the end of one week was entirely well." For sale by all druggists.

REV. BURNHAM PREACHES

And Gives Reasons For His Faith—News of the Churches.

At the Christian Tabernacle Sunday night Rev. Burnham preached. His text was I. Peter, 3:15. "But sanctify the Lord God in your hearts and be ready always to give an answer to every man that asketh you a reason of the hope that is in you with meekness and fear." After reading the account of the testimony of the blind man whom Jesus healed as recorded in the ninth chapter of John, Mr. Burnham said that he believed that the religion of Christ was reasonable thing. That if a man believed in Jesus he ought to be able to tell why he so believed. Then having pointed out what are the conditions of belief, and what is implied by Jesus' query to the young man, "Dost thou believe in the son of God?" he said that he wished to state three reasons why he believed in Jesus Christ. These three points made the body of the sermon and were elucidated and illustrated with splendid power. Mr. Burnham said that Jesus answers the three greatest questions that concern our human life, and so answered them that the reverent, thoughtful man could hardly escape belief in Him as the Son of God. These three questions were, (1). God, and His relation to the world; (2). Man his origin, the meaning of his present life and his destiny; (3). The future, the meaning of the world's existence and the final consummation of all things. These are questions which every thinking mind would wish answered. And Jesus gives the most satisfactory answer ever attempted. Rev. Burnham will again preach at the Tabernacle on next Sunday night.

Cure for Cholera Infantum.

"Last May," says Mrs. Curtis Baker of Bookwalter, Ohio, "an infant child of our neighbor's was suffering from cholera infantum. The doctor had given up all hopes of recovery. I took a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy to the house, telling them I felt sure it would do good if used according to directions. In two days' time the child had fully recovered, and is now nearly a year since a vigorous, healthy girl. I have recommended this remedy frequently and have never known it to fail in any single instance." For sale by all druggists.

Twenty Bushels

Conrade W. P. Martin was up near Forsyth on Sunday and made an examination of the corn fields. He brought back samples of corn from the farm of his brother Henry. The corn looks fine but a careful count of the ears on a given number of stalks indicate that the yield will be about twenty bushels to the acre. The same land last year yielded sixty bushels to the acre.

A PLEA OF GUILTY

The Fine Assessed Against Charles Hardy Was Paid by His Brother.

HARDY IS AGAIN ON THE RUN

As Soon As He Is Discharged He Gets Drunk and Again Assaults His Sick Wife.

In the county court Monday Charles Hardy came before Judge Harmon and entered a plea of guilty to the charge of disturbing the peace and was fined $5 and costs. Hardy was arrested about ten days ago on complaint of his wife. They have been living a cat and dog life the bonds were forfeited. Since his arrest Hardy has been in jail and the prospect of having their wife stood up till his brother came from Peoria to pay the fine, and produced the money to pay the fine.

Last night the police were given another warrant for the arrest of Hardy. He had no more than got out of jail than he went out and had one of his characteristic carouses which ended in his wife's helplessly drunk. He went to the apartments of his wife, who was ill, and made an assault on her. At 1 o'clock he was in the police station in charge. The charges are a felony on Hardy, but as it is doubtful as to whether he is to find him.

There are a number of cases set for the term, today and there is a possibility that out of the total there will be some of them come to trial. The docket orders entered Monday follow

Stephen Lowe, assault and battery, set for second Wednesday

Rudolph Growkowski, petty larceny, stricken out leave

Frank Hall, alias Frank Smith, William Starr and James Cahill, disturbing the peace on Sunday, nolled

John Bird Dunn, selling liquor to minors nolled

Eli Lane, assault with deadly weapon, stricken with leave

Bert Seamon, assault and battery, set for hearing Aug 8?

Charles Hardy, disorderly conduct Defendant pleads guilty to one count and is fined $5 and costs

John Rieken, false pretenses, continued until next term

Mr. G. E. Knight, who has gone to Crowley, La., to visit his son Arthur, who is engaged in rice farming, writes that it is still dry in some sections of that country and some rice fields are not yet flooded, although there is plenty of water in some places and the crops are looking fine.

More welcome showers came yesterday. The central portion of Illinois has been blessed with rains during the past few days. They have been reported from nearly every section.

Tom Miller has been appointed to the position of night watchman at the asylum for the incurable insane in Peoria. He was formerly a member of the Decatur police force.

MAKING GOOD HEADWAY.

Mr. Knight Secures Valuable Concessions For Interurban Line.

Abraham Brokaw, who owns some of the finest land along the Kickapoo, south of the city, and farms adjoining, has come to the front and proved his farsighted business ability by donating to the Bloomington & Decatur Interurban Railway a strip of land through his acres for a distance of two and one eighth miles, 25 feet wide most of the distance and 32 feet wide through the woods known as Orendorf springs, the latter width being for the purpose of enabling the electric railroad company to construct switch tracks.

The move is one of the most important yet made by the company. It has been practically decided to change the line south of the city so that the road will turn east across the Illinois Central between Decatur and the Y and continue east south through the Brokaw and Kinsey farms to a point south and east of the old station of Hendrix. It is likely that the route of the road will then switch across the Illinois Central tracks and reach the town limits of Decatur through Macon, Wapella, Clinton and on to the city of Decatur. Mr. Knight is now in the city and it is understood that he is doing all he can to get the deal through. It will cut the great bulk of the curves between Bloomington and Decatur and has been already slated for the road bed.

Once on the completion of the new road between Decatur and this city, which will meet with general approval is that all crossings of steam roads will be made either by overhead crossings or tunnel. There will be no dangerous grade crossings to menace the passengers, but crossings above and below the steam roads will do away with one of the greatest dangers which confronts all roads.

It is understood that an effort will be made this week to close up the petitions for the rights of way through the streets of this city so that a franchise can be asked of the council.

Mr. Knight will visit the towns to the north of the city this coming week to look after the interests of the road there. Bloomington Bulletin.

COL WARNER FAVORS IT.

Mr. Knight, the interurban railroad promoter, will take a trip down to Clinton today, where he expects to secure signatures of several parties owning land along the proposed right of way of the electric road. One of these will be Col Algernon Warner, who has already expressed his willingness to sign the contracts as soon as they were presented to him. Col Warner owns considerable land between Clinton and Macon, through which the road will pass. Col Warner has expressed himself as willing to sign for the right of way to the road through his own land, and also for all the land which he controls as executor for the C. H. Moore estate. This is one of the most liberal propositions that the railroad people have met from any individual land holder along the line. Bloomington Pantagraph by local applications as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the eustachian tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever, nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured.

We will give one hundred dollars for any case of deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

The study of horticulture and agriculture was introduced last year in the ninth year. The study was designed to cover two years and the program for the tenth year work is being distributed at the institute. Selections from it are given below

FIRST MONTH.

What kinds (breeds) of horses, cattle, sheep and swine are kept in your township?

Make a collection of leaves of all the trees growing in the neighborhood.

SECOND MONTH.

Count all the different kinds of plants growing in a square foot of sod. Look very closely for those not readily seen.

Study an ear of corn. What is the proportion between the length of the ear and its diameter? How many rows at the butt? At the tip? Do the rows twist to the right, to the left, or do they run straight? What differences in the kernels growing at the butt, the middle and the tip? Make drawings of each. Are the kernels smooth on top or dented? If dented what is the shape of the dent long, round or irregular? What is the variety examined?

THIRD MONTH.

What farm, garden and orchard plants reproduce only from seeds? What ones by some other method than by seed? What ones will not produce valuable varieties that "come true" by seed?

Find what is a day's work at the following, Plowing, cultivating corn, husking corn, cutting wheat, threshing, cutting hay, digging the ditch

FOURTH MONTH.

Plat and write a history of one farm in the neighborhood of what it raised the present year, how many acres of each; what is the yield; how much was marketed and how much fed or otherwise consumed on the farm; how many acres failed to yield anything (counting hence how we are to plant it); what the farm is rented at and what it is worth at market price.

FIFTH MONTH.

Write full description of a truck farm of the neighborhood and draw a ground plan of the farm

Make a collection of seeds of all fruits grown or sold in the neighborhood.

Make a collection of oat and grass seed that will yield a farmer expect to sow. Examine each fully, identify any weed seeds found and estimate the per centage of purity.

SIXTH MONTH

Collect seed corn from at least five farmers. Report where it was kept and how they cared for it during the winter. Put one hundred kernels of each on a plate of moistened sand or other such form another plate over it to keep it from getting dry, keep warm and moist and after seven days count the sprouted kernels and estimate the percentage of germination. Put a few kernels in balls of cotton and lay in a glass of water. Watch the roots.

SEVENTH MONTH.

Watch for the first birds and the first buds and keep a record of the date of each. Continue through next month.

Plant in dishes of soil seeds of beans, orange coffee and the various fruits and nuts in the market. Make drawings of their leaves.

Plant not less than five seeds of corn, oats, beans, peas and squash in separate rows across a box of earth kept moist and warm. Note time of planting when each comes up. Also write descriptions and make drawings showing how each looks as it pushes through the ground.

EIGHTH MONTH.

Weigh all the milk of two cows for a week. Why does one give more milk than the other? Does she eat more?

Make a garden six feet square of good ground. Sow radishes, lettuce and spinach. Plant one potato, two cabbages, one cucumber, two bush beans, two tomatoes and a few peas. Train the tomatoes to stick and keep trimmed. Lay vines over the edge of the garden as much as possible. Keep clean of weeds. Keep record of time of sprouting, blossoming and fruiting.

The mine will be lighted by electric lights and the miners will only occasionally have use for the little cap lamps which they have needed in the past.
